Today's Staffing Officially Announces Name Change to Today's Office Professionals

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. - May 20, 2008—Today's Staffing, a recognized staffing leader offering highly specialized talent solutions, has officially announced that it has changed its company name to Today's Office Professionals. The company has made the decision to change its name in order to reflect their broader scope of talent offerings and to underscore their focus on specialty recruiting and staffing of high-end administrative and other office professionals.

“While the company has been operating as Today's Staffing for more than 25 years, we wanted to introduce a fresh, upbeat identity that would better distinguish our brand,” stated Rich Mazelsky, senior vice president and group executive of Today's Office Professionals. “Our new name, Today's Office Professionals, reflects our new and modern identity in the staffing and recruiting industry. Although our name has changed, our commitment to delivering high-quality results to both our clients and candidates remains permanent.”

As part of the brand launch, Today's Office Professionals will have a new logo and will also introduce a new, rebranded Web site, www.todays.com.
